REILLY REPORT

Please keep Fr. Pete and his family in your prayers. His dad, Dr. Elmer "Jack" St. George, died on Monday. The Mass of Christian burial was held on Thursday. Memorials may be made to the National Right to Life and condolences to hodappfuneralhome.com

Thanks for your support of the magazine drive. Yesterday was the last official turn in day. If you have a few orders left we will be glad to process them next week. We have surpassed our goal this year which is great news in this economy. The gross sales of magazine orders was over $93,000! We also would like to thank our magazine committee members who worked so hard to make this sale a success. Thank you Julie Harvey, Gayle Unkrich, Paula Flaherty, Kim Glassmeyer and all the volunteers who helped with the sale.

The highest selling homerooms have earned a pizza party and the winners are:

Mrs. Riestenberg AM Kindergarten
(plus $125 for Highest Homeroom incentive)
Mrs. Menzer Grade 1
Mrs. Decker Grade 2
(plus $100 for Highest Homeroom incentive)
Mrs. Behrle Grade 3
(plus $75 for highest Homeroom incentive)
Mrs. Gonzalez Grade 4
(plus $175 for Highest Homeroom incentive)
Mrs. Hudepohl Grade 5
Mr. Meyer Grade 6
(plus $250 for Highest Homeroom incentive)
Mrs. McGowan Grade 7
Mrs. Grote Grade 8

The flying pigs have landed in the following classrooms: Mrs. Riestenberg AM, Mrs. Decker, Mrs. Gonzalez, and Mr. Meyer. Great work,

Students and Teachers!

Traffic is sure to continue to be a challenge for as long as construction of one sort or another is occurring on North Bend. I should have known the "two week" time line I announced at the beginning of the year was not going to stick. It turns out that was just for the gas line upgrades. Currently, the work is on the power lines. We have road widening next but no start date has been announced. I don't know all of the parents who called the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office to "suggest improvement" in the way traffic flow was managed on Wednesday, but it worked! I think it is good for you to know that your input does matter.

Our all school Mission Mass is next Tuesday, September 29th at 2:00pm. All are welcome.

Did you have any confusion this morning getting ready for our first St. I Spirit Day of the year? If you have questions about what to wear or how it works, feel free to call or check out the printed information under "dress codes" in the handbook. (The handbook is printed in every planner and is also available on the website.)

Everyone has been doing a great job of avoiding deliveries and class interruptions. As we begin standardized testing next Thursday in grades 2,4,6,and 8, it is extremely important for students to be here and not be interrupted. The schedule is spread out over 8 to 9 different sessions between Oct.1 and Oct. 22.
